Wednesday 14 – Thursday 22 January

The German Cultural Centre Goethe-Zentrum Nicosia, supporting the efforts of Civic Art Movement, a recently formed world organization aiming for peace and the harmonious coexistence of people, presents the exhibit "Go Ganesha Go" - Elephants for peace.

This is a global programme in which artists as well as citizens take part, and attempt through the elephant – a symbol of wisdom and harmony – to give "flesh and bones" to the abstract concept of "peace."

All objects which will be collected, both small and large elephants, will be presented in the coming May on Ledra Street. Taking part in events in Nicosia are, amongst others, teachers and students, while objects and sketches from other countries in which the exhibit has taken place are also on display.

The exhibit will be inaugurated on 14 January, at 20:00, by the President of the Cyprus Chamber of Fine Arts (E.KA.TE.), Daphne Trimiklinioti.
