

SUMMER NIGHTS IN NICOSIA

July – September 2010

The alternative proposal of the Nicosia Municipality will once again provide a refreshing note to summer nights in Nicosia. Various events are hosted in the neighbourhoods and squares of the town from early July until September.

Building upon the success of its summer cultural events in the past three years, the Municipality expects that this year too the residents and visitors to the city will once again embrace its activities.

The events include music, theatre and other performances with the participation of both local and foreign performers and artists.

Starting time for all events: 20:30.

Admittance to all events is free in accordance with the Municipality's policy for the event to be accessible to a wide audience.

Following three consecutive successful years of cultural activities, the Nicosia Municipality once again organizes this summer various cultural events in neighbourhoods and squares of the city of Nicosia, from early July until September

The range of events includes music and theatre performances with the participation of local as well as foreign artists.

Free Admittance.
